PO BOX 100236 • CRANSTON, RI 02910 • 401-949-5901

Supporting Those Who Serve

January 2016

Dear RISFL Members:

The Rhode Island State Firefighter's League's (RISFL) object and purpose is to unite the firefighter's of the State of Rhode Island, through the local Fire/EMS Associations for social, instructive, educational, and legislative purposes, and to establish and perpetuate a mutual benefit for all firefighters in the State of Rhode Island, who are Members of the Fire/EMS Associations, affiliated with the League.

The RISFL represents the volunteer fire and emergency services of Rhode Island at the national level on the NVFC board. The NVFC is the leading nonprofit association representing volunteer fire, EMS, and rescue personnel nationwide. The NVFC serves as the unified voice for the volunteer in the federal legislature and policy-making arenas and addresses critical issues such as grants and funding, training, volunteer retention and recruitment, and first responder health and safety.
